Policy of Registration

As per the law in India, if any employee is paying the registration fee with his explicit consent and has complete freedom to decide whether to get a job or not, then this policy is considered legal - provided there is no force or pressure on the employee and everything is clear in writing.

Key points of the policy draft:

1. Employee Rs 49. Registration is done completely at his own will.
2. Getting or not getting a job is entirely his wish, there is no compulsion.
3. Registration is being done without any pressure, force or misleading.
4. Company is only responsible for registration and does not give any guarantee/obligation for job.
5. The employee will be required to sign the agreement/declaration given in it.
